IN MEMORIAM

In celebrating Cap and Dagger's 80th birthday, we certainly want to salute the memory of Dr. C. Willard Smith. For over half its history, Willard — as he was affectionately known by generation upon generation of its members — served Cap and Dagger as adviser, teacher, director, designer, critic, champion, and friend. Willard helped bring about the marriage of Frill and Frown, the women's dramatic organization, to Cap and Dagger, originally the men's dramatic organization. Thanks to his years of guidance and counselling it has been a long and happy marriage. Many of the returning Cap and Dagger alumni this week-end knew and loved Willard; the experience enriched their lives. Those of us less fortunate must look to them to pass down the tradition of Willard's role in our theatre.
